

Rupert de Klee

An energetic, instinctively curious, empathetic and business-focused mentor, with a background as a protagonist within the commercial property and third sectors. He has worked with a wide range of corporate structures, underpinning his current role with Results.

Director, The Results Partnership (2006-)

Current advisory engagements include the fast-tracking of UK insurance company expansion to release a similar programme for the USA and the complete overhaul of a provincial professional firm's organisational systems and strategic planning.

Managing Director, Prospect Point Investments (2002-2007)

Principal joint shareholder of SPV for large-scale urban renewal project on Aberdeen Harbour. Large complex of assorted buildings acquired for redevelopment.

Managing Director, Albany Land (1993-2007)

Private property company with specific joint ventures for large redevelopment projects including Sion Hall, Victoria Embankment, the historic Broomielaw in Glasgow together with the overhaul of Scotland's premier business park at Kirkton Campus, Livingston.

Director, Northbourne Property Trust, Sydney, Australia (1991-1993)

High profile CBD office developer in Canberra and Sydney. Specifically tasked with resolution of challenges associated with local banking crisis as they affected large-scale development portfolio including iconic No.1 O'Connell Street.

Director, Hutley Holdings plc (1987-1991)

Built up UK commercial property portfolio whilst targeting significant hotel development program in USSR (Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev and Tashkent) with Intourist.

Development Surveyor, London and Edinburgh Investment Trust (1983-1987)

Led the company's public flotation onto London Stock Exchange and undertook numerous development projects for the most dynamic company in the sector. Formed retail development department.

Investment Surveyor, Richard Ellis, Chartered Surveyor, London (1978-1983)

Work covered receiverships, institutional purchases and secondary sales.

Professional & Academic:

- Chartered Surveyor (Member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors).
- University of Strathclyde – CFM Certificate in Executive Coaching
- University of Edinburgh – Batchelor of Social Sciences (Economics).

Third Sector:

Chairman of Prison Fellowship Scotland (2002-) Full time staff of 5 orchestrating prison visits and courses leading to rehabilitation throughout Scotland's prisons.

Chairman of Fern Street Settlement (1976-). Founded in 1907, the Settlement is a day centre addressing the needs of the surrounding community in Bromley-by-Bow.

Trustee of the Chemical Dependency Centre (1982-2007). Alcohol and drug rehabilitation services provider including half-way houses.